PRELUDE

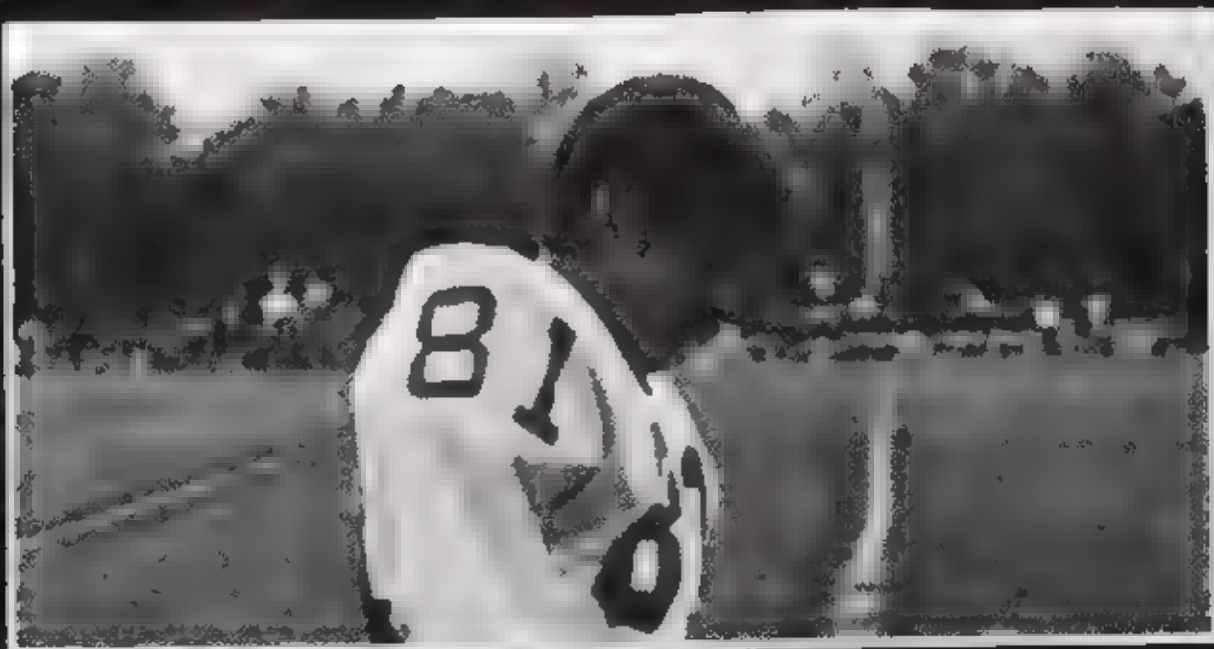

*Together we've created a portrait of time,
Using watercolored memories, serenely
Painted on the canvas of our experiences.*

*We've searched our deepest reflections,
And sketched the challenges of our lives.
Though difficult, we met them, together.*

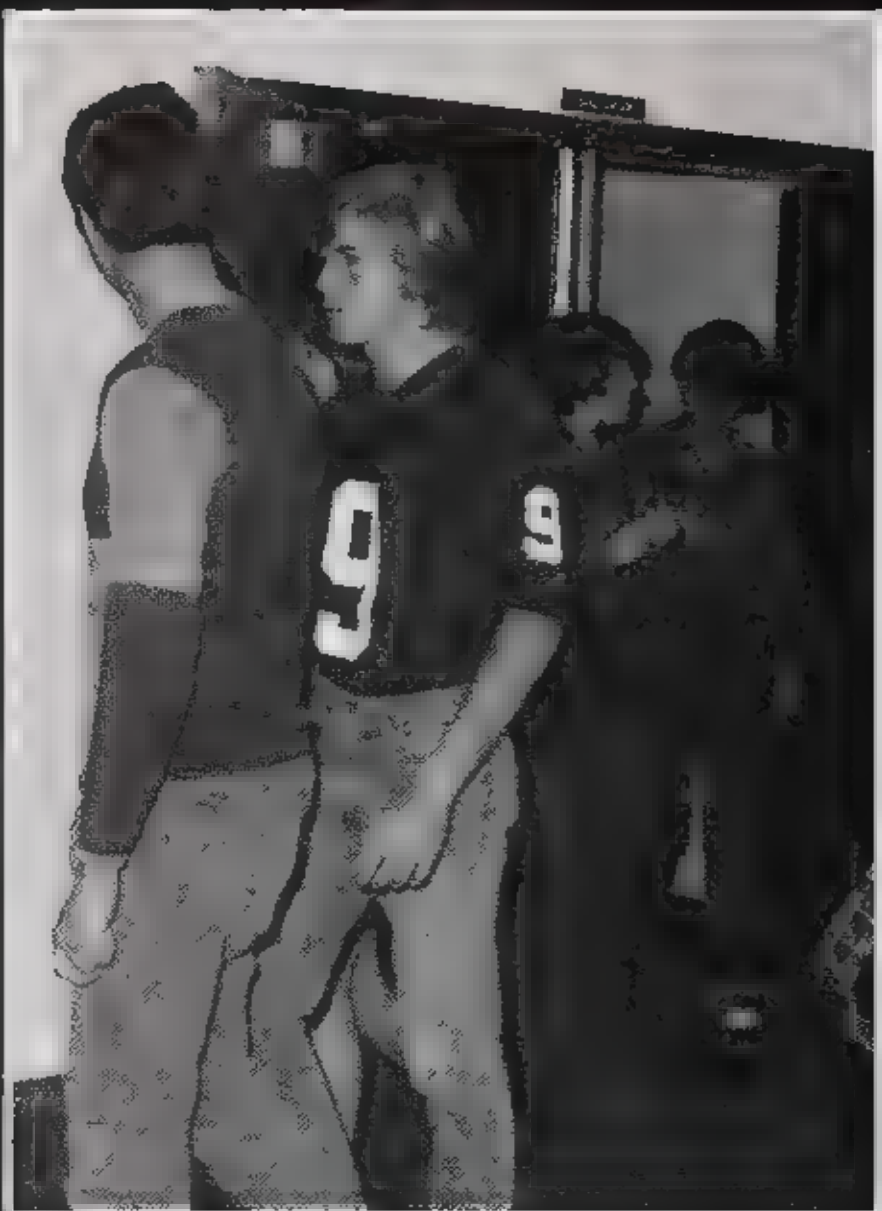

*And we've watched the colored pinwheels
Called days, spinning in the wind,
Turning into months, then years.*

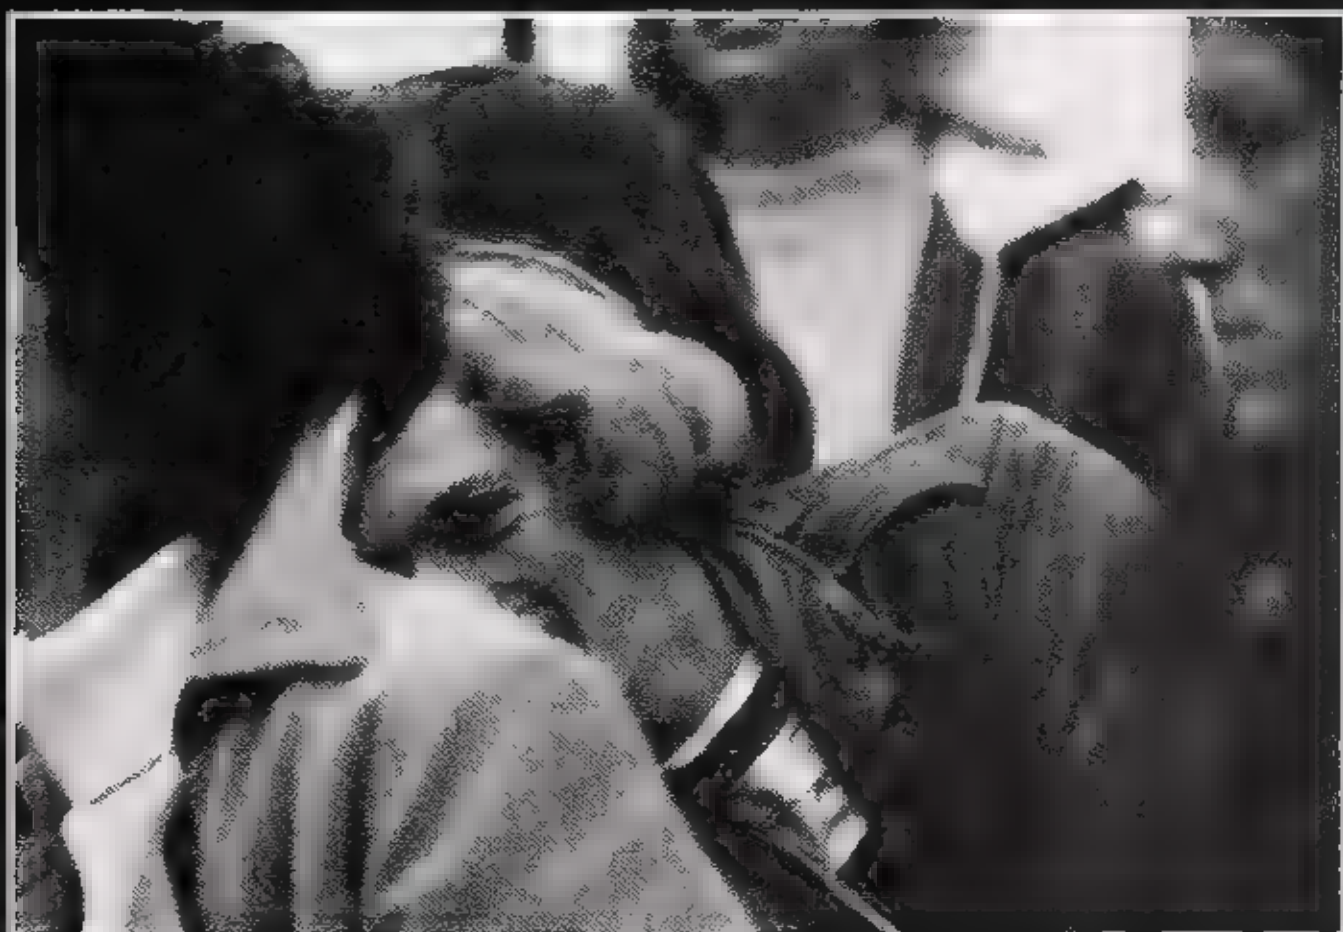

*We've seen ourselves in a thousand
Different ways, ever changing —
Child, Student, Adult, FRIEND.*

*As our carefree days draw to a close
Shed a tear and smile.
Be happy with the present,
For it lasts but just awhile.*

11, 12; Soccer Intramurals 11; Intramural Basketball 10, 11, 12.

ROSEMARY FOX

"Give us, Lord, a bit of a song,
And a tale, and a book to help us along.
Give us, Lord, a chance to be
Our goodly best, brave, wise and free,
Our goodly best for ourself and others,
Till all men learn to live as brothers."

Yearbook Staff 11, 12; Student Council 9, 10, 11; Spanish
Club 10; Ski Club 9, 10, 11, 12; Prom Committee 11, 12.

JOHN GUTHIER

"These are the good old days. It seems to me a crime that we should age. These fragile times should never slip us by: times you never can or shall erase, as friends together watch their childhood fly."

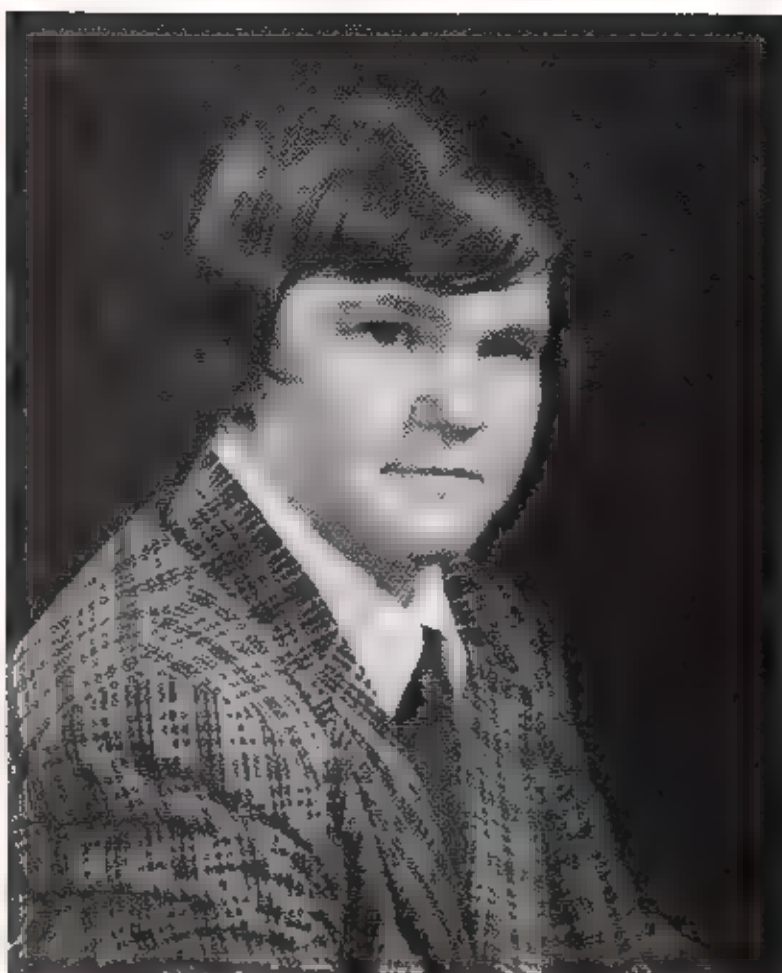

Business Club 9.

TIM HOODACK

"A friend is one who knows you as you are, understands where you've been, accepts what you've become, and still gently invites you to grow."

"Maybe you can't always get what you want, but you should never stop trying."

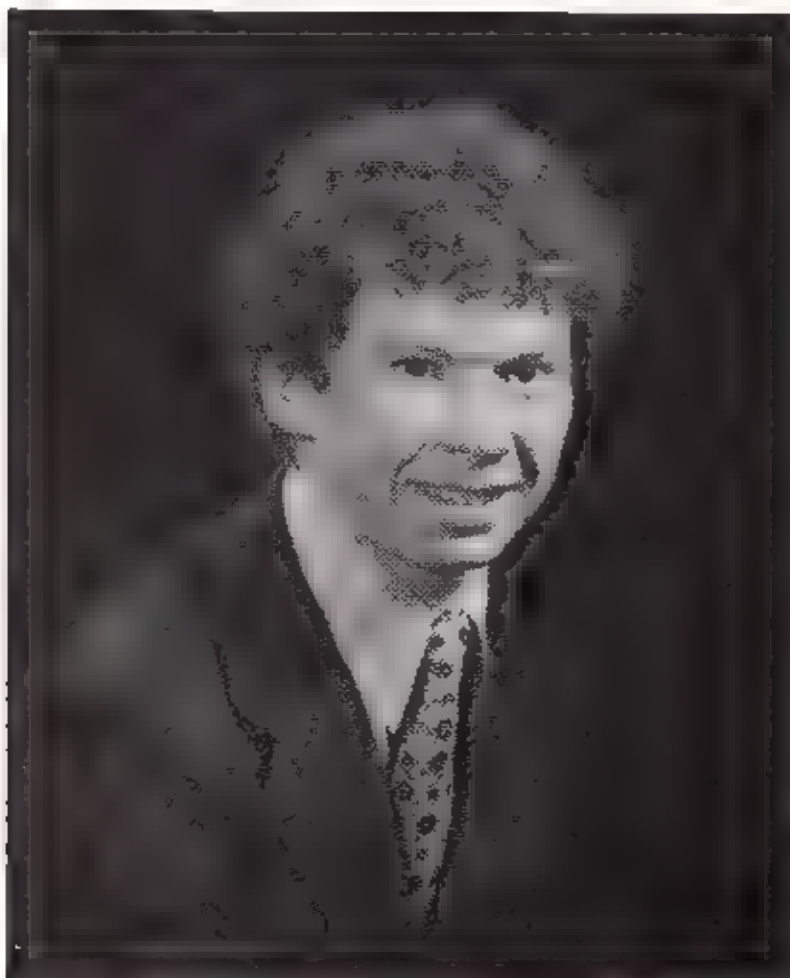

BILL BAKER

"The educated may acquire knowledge, but true wisdom is a gift from God."

Business Club 10.

WILLIAM E. FLYNN

"I live my life through my own mind
And as I sit among the trees they will never tell me where to go
Nor will the voice of a rushing stream tell me what to say
For not even the wind whistling through the pines will tell me that I am wrong
For, I am my own Man!"

BETSY PATTISON

"When here and now cease to matter.
Old men ought to be explorers
Here and there does not matter
We must be still and still moving
Into another intensity
For a further union, a deeper communion
Through the dark cold and the empty desolation,
The wave cry, the wind cry, the vast waters
Of the petrel and the porpoise,
In my end is my beginning.

Entered College after Junior Year; Student Council 9, 10, 11; Class President 11; Prom Committee 11; Junior Prom Queen.

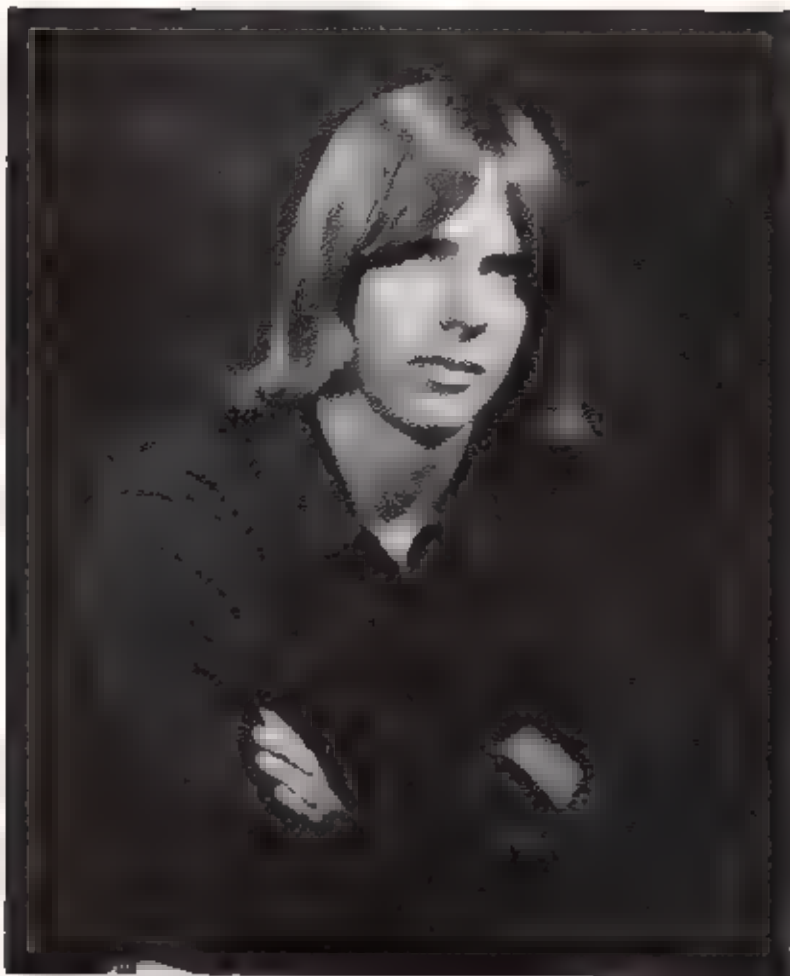

DONNA ERICKSON

"In silence we must wrap up much of our life because it is too fine for speech, because also we cannot explain it to others, and because some we cannot yet understand."

Student Council 11, 12; Business Club 11, 12.

PEG QUIGLEY

"Oh life is like a maze of doors
And they all open from the side you're on,
Just keep pushin' hard
Yeah, try as you may,
You're gonna wind up where you started from!"

Cat Stevens

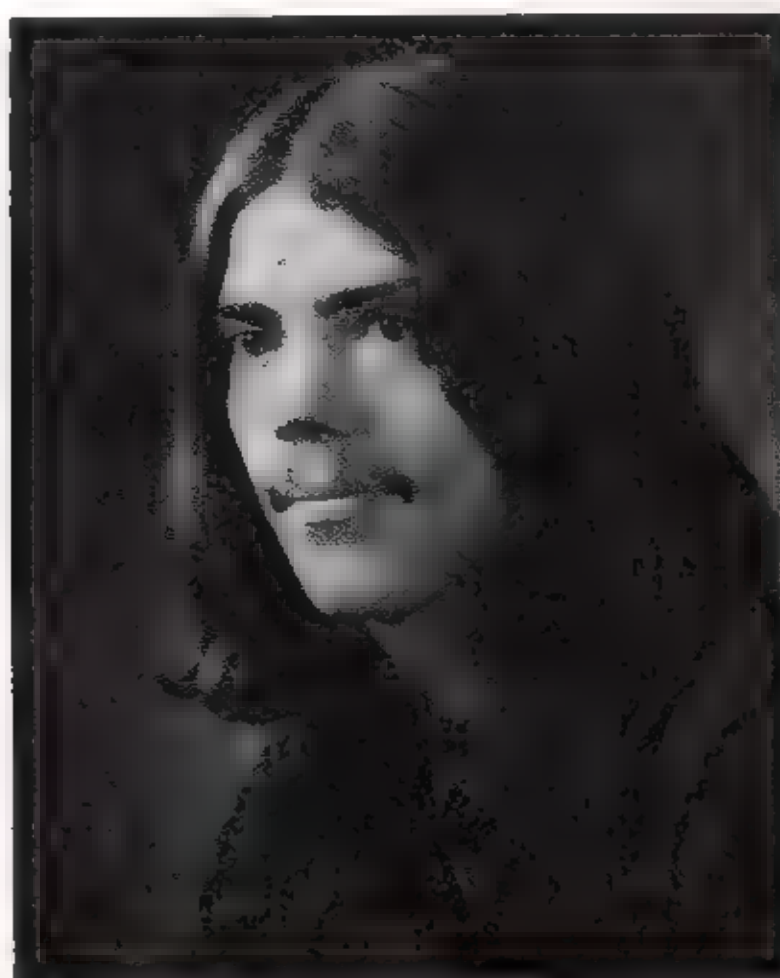

Yearbook Staff 12; The Paper 12.

RUSS BERGER

"Lord I was born a ramblin' man,
Tryin' to make a livin' and doin' the best I can,
And when it's time for leavin' I hope you'll understand
That I was born a ramblin' man."

The Allman Brothers

Ski Club 9; Intramural Soccer 11, 12.

JUDY BONESTEEL

"We travel along the road to life: hardly knowing what we are, yet always daring to be something; seldom saying what we mean, but never afraid to have meaning; often apologizing for our existence, while realizing that life is its own excuse."

CATHY O'BRIEN

"Though we travel the world over to find the beautiful, we must carry it with us or we find it not."

MARYJANE SPIAK

"... Then take me disappearin' through the smoke rings of my mind
down the foggy ruins of time,
far past the frozen leaves, the haunted, frightened trees,
out to the windy beach
far from the twisted reach of crazy sorrow,
Yes to dance beneath the diamond sky with one hand wavin' free silhouetted by the sea,
circled by the circus sands with all memory and fate driven deep beneath the waves let me forget about today until tomorrow."

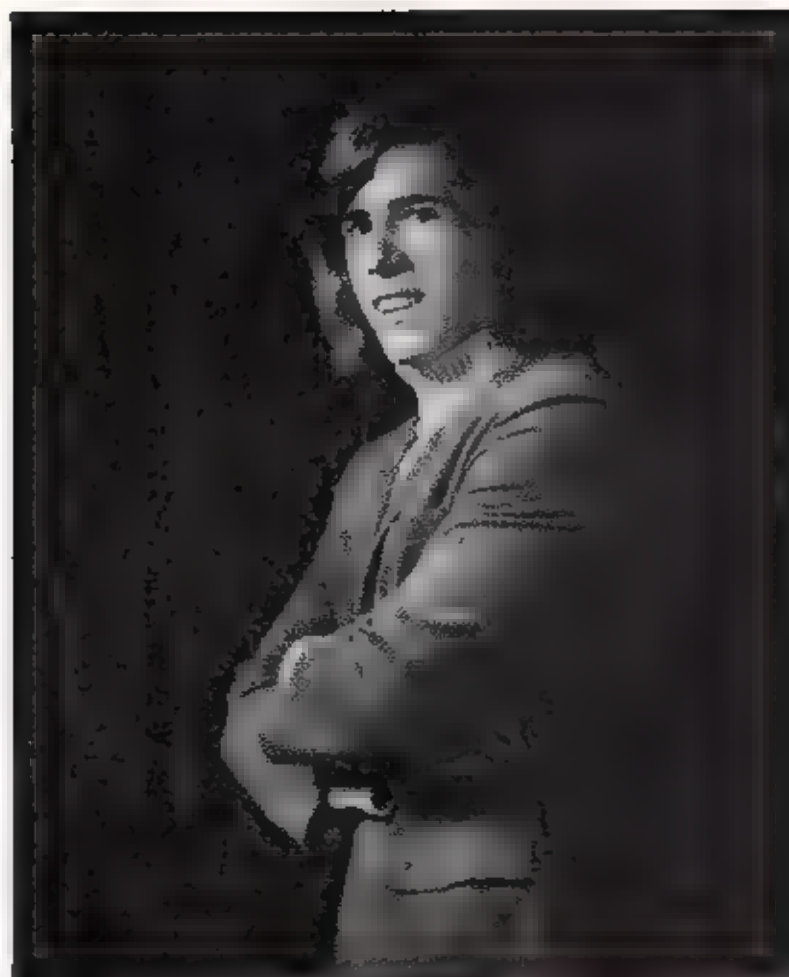

Bob Dylan 1965

"The Road goes ever on and on,
Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
pursuing it with eager feet,
Until it joins some larger way
where many paths and errands meet.
And whither then? I cannot say."

Tamarac is amidst a sports revolution.

We now realize athletics involves not only the school, but the whole community. People are cheering, participating and caring with vitality and exuberance. The evidence of this is seen in the contributions of the Booster Club, alumni, and the teachers who give their time and energy to coaching and advising, and the students who volunteer to work at the games. Because of their cooperation the athletes can express themselves on the field or the court.

We owe our thanks to those adults in the Booster Club who supervised the concession stand and awards dinner. They spent their time raising money for a new scoreboard, video-tape machines and athletic equipment. They've demonstrated how community effort benefits everyone from the players to spectators.

We must also show our appreciation to people like Miss Murphy who have worked so hard for the teams. Miss Murphy brought organized girl's sports into the limelight, showing us that girls have much to offer to the field of athletics.

And what about the students? These are scorekeepers, managers, home-game volunteers, video cameramen and fans who've done so much "behind the scenes." These people are the backbone of athletics.

Then there are the athletes themselves - for without them there would be no competition. These are the girls and guys advised for their hours of practice, their stamina, and their devotion to their sports.

Tamarac sports are expanding and bringing more people together through involvement and enthusiasm.

You might say it's a revolution.

THANKS

TO

. . . Donna and Dave for superbly snowing the seniors . . .

. . Bob and Bob for the undoing of he underclass . . .

. . Barb and Bill for fixing the faculty flicks . . .

. . . Jo and Re for the "cliquing" of the clubs and activities . . .

... Sue and Tim for somehow sweating it out thru the sports section ...

... Sue for all the pretty pictures ... Karen for tipsily tip-toeing thru the typing ...

... Jeannie and Jack for their amorous attention to the ad section ...

... Mr. Backhaus and each other for fantastically fudging the nineteen seventy-five Tamarac Triumph

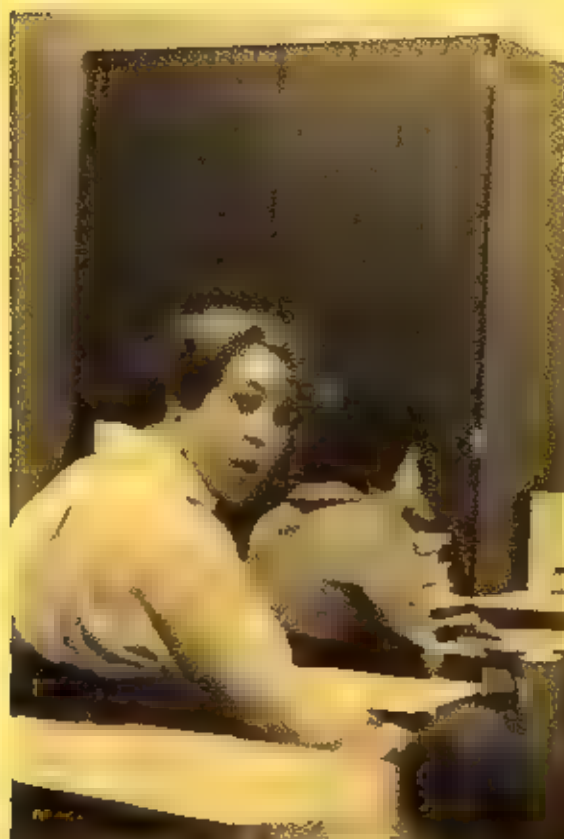

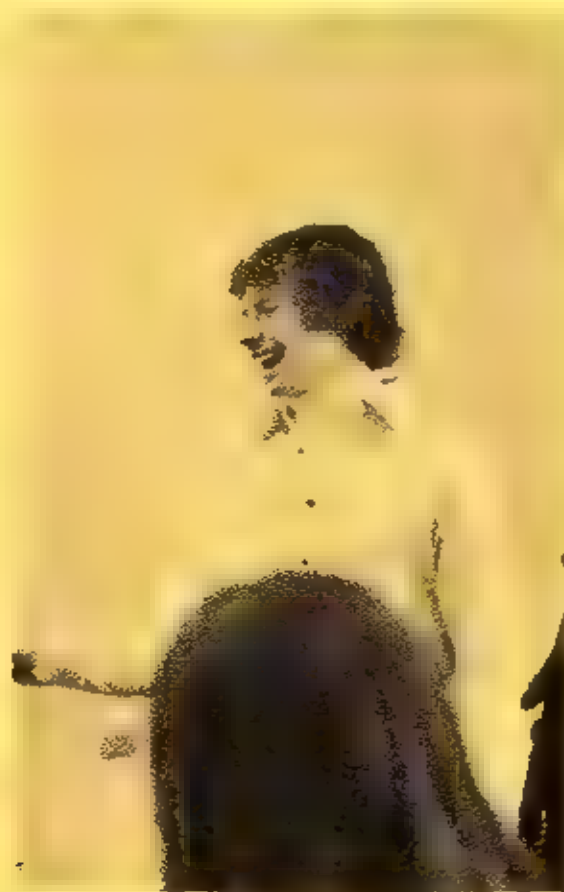

... and to Mr. Gray of Taylor Publishing, Mr. Lloyd and his associates at Lloyd Studio, the faculty, student body and our advertisers, who helped make TRIUMPH '75 a success.

Sincerely,

Sue Clickner
Kora Doyle

*With the brush's last strokes,
The painting is done.
And time stands still Within each of us . . .*

*These were our moments
Spun from hours to days,
And into four years
Of various shades.*

*They were precious to us
Forever etched in our minds,
The memories we framed
In our Portrait of Time.*
